

COLLEGE

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT IS THE C2C PROGRAM?

The College to Career Program at Long Beach City College provides extra educational coaching support not otherwise available through the College for selected students who are clients of a regional center. The program has a residential component in which the students also receive support and training in the development of skills needed to live independently in the community. Both the educational and the living supports are funded by the regional center. Students who complete the program and receive either a degree or a certificate are assisted in finding employment.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR THE C2C PROGRAM?

Students who are currently enrolled in a degree or certificate program at Long Beach City College and are clients of a regional center. The program is for students who are currently enrolled in a degree or certificate program at Long Beach City College and are clients of a regional center. The program is for students who are currently enrolled in a degree or certificate program at Long Beach City College and are clients of a regional center.

WHAT DOES THE C2C EDUCATIONAL COMPONENT REQUIRE AND PROVIDE?

The educational component requires that students complete a degree or certificate program at Long Beach City College. The program provides extra educational coaching support and training in the development of skills needed to live independently in the community.

WHAT DOES THE C2C SUPPORTED LIVING COMPONENT REQUIRE AND PROVIDE?

The supported living component provides assistance with learning to use public transportation, budgeting, paying bills, grocery shopping, laundry, cooking, performing household tasks, and should be able to safely spend extended periods of time unsupervised.

WHAT IS THE FINANCIAL COST EACH YEAR FOR THE COLLEGE AND LIVING ARRANGEMENT?

Financial cost information for the college and living arrangements.

OR REGIONAL CENTER

Additional text at the bottom of the page, possibly a footer or contact information.